

Companies should NOT be able to own multiple communication companies in one market or multiple cities. Markets should be diverse. I don't want mega-companies supplying all my information and entertainment. Small businesses deserve to be protected from these mega-companies.